EDW. S. FOSS, SEC.

April 1799. 36 Eſſex Street.

In Addition to the numerous Cautions and Notices which have heretofore been circulated among the Members, to prevent their being defrauded by bad Bills, and otherwiſe, the following have been circulated among them, ſince the laſt Anniverſary, viz.

April 23d, 1798.

THE Members are hereby cautioned againſt being impoſed upon by a Young Woman, between 17 and 20 Years of Age, of rather a pale Countenance, having the Appearance of a Lady's Maid; and of a remarkably decent Addreſs.—Such a Perſon having lately obtained Goods from Two Members, by repreſenting herſelf as coming from Two Ladies of diſtinction, to whom ſhe was, in conſequence, ſuppoſed to be Servant; but on Enquiry of thoſe Ladies the Tranſactions turn out to be Impoſitions.

Auguſt 6th, 1798.

LETTERS without any Signature, or Place of Reſidence of the Perſons writing them, having been recently addreſſed to the Secretary: the Committee hereby apprize the Members, that they have thought it proper to repeat in the public Papers, a Notice heretofore given, that no attention can be paid to anonymous Information.

THE Committee, at the ſame Time, remind the Members, that in every Inſtance of Frauds committed on them, and of which an authenticated written Account is ſent to the Secretary, ſuch Meaſures will be taken relative thereto, as are proper and legal.

October 8, 1798.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Members, that information has been received by the Society, that there are Perſons in different Parts of the Metropolis, in the habit of procuring Goods from Manufacturers in the Country, by writing ſpecious Letters with Orders, profeſſing to pay the Amount on being drawn upon, by Drafts at ſhort dates; but when they become due, the Parties are not to be found at the Houſes from whence they date their Letters, and which they have had the Addreſs to hire a Part of, for the Purpoſe of carrying on their nefarious Practices.

October 26, 1798.

THE Members are hereby informed, that a Perſon hath lately obtained, from a Member of this Society, the difference between the Price of ſome Goods he ordered, and the Amount of a Draft or Cheque, he produced, upon "Meſſrs. Ro-
"barts, Curtis, Were, Hornyold & Co." payable to "Jno.

"Jno. Smith, Esq. or Bearer" and signed "Wm. Antrobus," but on presenting the same for Payment, it appeared that no such Person kept Cash at that House.

He is a tall genteel young Man about 25 Years of Age, has dark Eyes and sometimes dresses in a Blue Coat and Pantaloons with his Hair tied; and at others in Mourning with his Hair as a Crop.

December 29, 1798.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Information has been received from one of the Members, that a Manufacturer, at Leeds, has received an Order for Woollen Goods from a MR. P. P. P. MYDDLETON, No. 23, Middle Scotland Yard, Parliament Street; but that on Enquiry no such Person is to be found.

January 7, 1799.

THE Members are hereby informed, that the following Person is reported to this Society as improper to be proposed to be admitted a Member thereof, (to wit).

—— MITCHELL, No. 49, Pall-Mall

February 8th, 1799.

THE Members are hereby informed, that the Persons using the Firm of

P. ALLEN & Co.

No. 3, Burr Street, Agents and Ship-Brokers.

are reported to this Society as improper to be proposed to be admitted Members thereof.

February 18*th*, 1799.

THE Members are hereby cautioned against taking Notes for ONE POUND, dated PORTSMOUTH, drawn in the Name of "Jno, Hart" enter'd "J. Walker" payable to Mr. John Greenwood or Bearer on demand there or at Messrs. Masterman, Peters, Walker & Co. Bankers, in London: such Notes, on being presented at the Banking House of Messrs. Masterman & Co. in White Hart Court, Lombard Street, having been refused payment, and declared to be Forgeries.

March 4*th*, 1799.

THE Members are hereby cautioned against executing Orders for a Person who, in October last, represented himself as "The Rev. Mr. PADDON, No. 4, Turnham Green Terrace," he having, not only quitted that Place at Christmas last, but, on being since accidentally met with, denied his Name and asserted that it was "CARTWRIGHT," and that he had been a Surgeon abroad, and now lived at No. 15, Wood Street, which, on enquiry, proves untrue.

The following Bye-Laws are inserted in the other Book for the year 1802.

BYE-LAWS,

Made ſubſequent to thoſe contained in the Book of the Rules and Orders printed previous to the 1ſt January 1788.

4th January 1788.

THAT a Sub-committee, to conſiſt of Five Members, be annually choſen out of the Members, compoſing the Yearly Committee, and that they, or any three of them, on Summons from the Secretary for that purpoſe, have power to order the iſſuing of Notices to the Members as Occaſion ſhall require, but not to authorize Advertiſements, or to tranſact any of the other Buſineſs uſually done on the eſtabliſhed Nights of Meeting, and that the Minutes of ſuch Sub-committee be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe.

26th September 1788.

THAT, at all future General Meetings, the Sum of Three Shillings be paid to each of the firſt Nine Members, who ſhall attend within Fifteen Minutes (by the Secretary's Watch) after the Hour mentioned in the Summons for ſuch Meetings, and ſhall not depart the Room, without the Chairman's Permiſſion, till the Buſineſs is finiſhed.

25th June 1790.

THAT, for the future, the Members to be elected at the Quarterly General Meeting, held in the Month of March, to ſerve on the committee for the enſuing Year, which commences after the Anniverſary Meeting, in the Room of thoſe Gentlemen who regularly go out, and of any others on the Committee who are not re-elected ſhall be ſummoned to, and have Voice at, the laſt Committee Meeting (being that for auditing the Treaſurer's Account's), held by virtue of the Rule and Orders, between ſuch Quarterly General Meeting and the Anniverſary.

9th February 1791.
